Sunday, April 12th, 2 pm Kaw Mission State Historic Site will present Forensic Anthropology, Tribal Historic Preservation and the Kaw Nation, by Crystal Roberts Douglas, Museum Director and Historic Preservation Director, Kaw Nation. This is the second presentation of the Kaw Councils 2015 educational program series. Regular admission fees apply, adults-$3 children-$1. All programs in the 2015 series follow the theme The Kaw Nation: Then and Now.

Twenty-five percent of businesses do not reopen following a major event such as fire, power outages and severe weather - is your biz prepared for downtime? Biz continuity plan development and consulting services are free and confidential. Contact the ESU- KSBDC at 620-341-5308 to set up an appointment for their visit to the Chamber office on Tues., April 14th from 11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. This is a community service partnership between Emporia State University, the U. S. Small Business Administration and the Kansas Department of Commerce.

Everyone is getting anxious to meet our new Executive Director, Diane Wolfe. Save the date on your calendar for a reception in her honor on Wednesday, April 15th, 5-6 pm. Be sure to take this opportunity to meet her and welcome her back to Council Grove in the fun and relaxing atmosphere of the Historic Grounds Coffee Shop.

The first quarterly education opportunity of 2015 will follow the Director's reception at 6 pm across the street at the Chamber Office. Our guest, Lawrence Siegrist, with the City of Council Grove will provide information on the new sign ordinance. He will answer questions and explain the sign ordinance in an effort to gather feedback from Chamber Members. Please RSVP to the Chamber if you plan to attend the educational event. 620-767-5413 or chamber@tctelco.net
